

News story: Check and update your charity details

All registered charities in England and Wales will need to check and update their details before they can submit an annual return.