

News story: Defence Minister visits Imperial College Translation and Innovation Hub

The Minister for Defence Procurement has been learning about Imperial College's £2 billion White City Campus, and how it offers new opportunities for defence and security innovation.