

News story: Environment Agency continues to urge caution following recent flooding

The Environment Agency has urged people to stay vigilant to the risk of flooding and stay away from swollen rivers.