

News story: Environment Bill further strengthened to tackle storm overflows

Change will further bolster the present raft of measures planned for Environment Bill which will tackle water pollution.