

News story: Extra support to complete Countryside Stewardship applications

Farmers will have additional time to complete their Countryside Stewardship 2024 applications as long as applications were started by Friday 15 September.