

News story: Government announces package of measures to support road haulage industry

Measures introduced to support recruitment and retention within the road haulage industry to ease pressure on the sector.