

News story: Government provides more funds for local authority air quality action

Local authorities are encouraged to bid for a portion of at least £2 million of government support.