

News story: Government sets out adaptation programme to tackle climate impact

Third National Adaptation Programme outlines how government will protect infrastructure, promote a greener economy and ensure resilient food production.