

News story: Government to cut red tape for farmers as they plan for 2021

Plans to reduce administrative burdens for farmers to enable them to focus on delivering environmental outcomes and transitioning to the new ELM scheme