

News story: HMRC outlines extension of Transitional Simplified Procedures

HMRC has today (22 March 2019) announced further details of measures to support businesses with new customs requirements, if the UK leaves the EU without a deal.