

News story: Minister for the Middle East statement on the terror attack in Jerusalem

Foreign Office minister Alistair Burt said:

I strongly condemn the horrific terror attack in Jerusalem. I am saddened and appalled by this despicable act and offer my condolences to the victims and their families. The UK continues to stand with Israel against terrorism.

Further information