

News story: More than 78,000 properties protected by Environment Agency during this month's flooding

The Environment Agency has urged people to stay vigilant to the risk of flooding and stay away from swollen rivers.