

News story: New indemnity scheme for general practice introduced

The government-funded scheme provides GPs and others providing NHS services for general practice with comprehensive, automatic cover for clinical negligence claims.