

News story: New insolvency regulations starting 8 December 2017

From 8 December 2017, limited liability partnerships (LLPs) will be subject to The Insolvency \(England and Wales\) Rules 2016. Insolvency practitioners administering a LLP insolvency must use Companies House forms from 8 December.

For England and Wales, the form 600 will be replaced. Use the new form for any appointments on or after 9 December 2017.

For Scotland, form 600 is still valid under The Companies \(Forms\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 1987. This must be sent to the Accountant in Bankruptcy.