

News story: Over £35 million to support Scottish universities tackling global challenges

Two Scottish universities that are leading projects to tackle global grand challenges will receive over £35 million in UK Government funding.