

News story: Penny Mordaunt welcomes China move on international development

International Development Secretary said the UK was building a “positive” relationship with China on working in developing countries