

News story: QROPS Online Service closing in April 2017

From:

First published:

13 February 2017

Part of:

The online service for managing qualifying recognised overseas pension schemes (QROPS) will close on 5 April 2017.

Managers and administrators of pension schemes must report information to HM Revenue and Customs about overseas pension schemes, including transfers to and payments from QROPS.

From 6 April 2017, you'll need to use the existing forms and reference material as the QROPS Online Service will be no longer available.