

News story: UK-Canada collaborations to boost productivity: apply for funding

UK businesses can apply for a share of £5 million to work with Canadian partners on highly-innovative productivity projects that target global markets.