

News story: UK wins global F-35 support assignment worth £500M

The UK's role as a leading partner on the global F-35 programme has received another huge boost today.