

NHS Test and Trace statistics for 27 August to 2 September released

Latest figures show that 82.7% of people who tested positive and were transferred to the contact-tracing system were reached and asked to provide information about their contacts.