

No. 3 alarm fire at Lamma Southwest marine area

A No. 3 alarm fire broke out at a vessel at Lamma Southwest Anchorage today (January 8) at 11.29am, and was upgraded to No. 3 alarm at 1.33pm.

Firemen are now fighting the blaze by using four jets.

A person was found dead at scene. Two persons were injured and were sent to hospital for treatment.