

No. 3 alarm fire in Lamma Southwest marine area (2)

The No. 3 alarm fire which broke out on a vessel in the Lamma Southwest Anchorage today (January 8) was brought under control at 3.42 pm.

Firemen are now fighting the blaze using four fire boat monitors.

A man was found dead at the scene. Four men were injured and were sent to hospital for treatment.