

No nomination form for Legislative Council Election Committee constituency by-election received today

The nomination period for the 2022 Legislative Council Election Committee constituency by-election starts today (November 1) and runs until November 14. No nomination form was received by the Returning Officer today.

If the number of validly nominated candidates is more than four, a poll will be held on December 18 (Sunday) for this by-election.