

North East fire risk waste site closed down

The Environment Agency has blocked access to land in Birtley to reduce the serious risks of illegal waste storage to the environment and local community.