

North-west legal community celebrated by Attorney General

The North-west legal community hosted the Attorney General as part of his ongoing efforts to engage with the profession across England and Wales.