

Northern Ireland grassroots sports projects to receive nearly £6 million in funding

As part of the continued drive to get more people active, the UK Government and the Irish FA have kicked off the year by announcing 17 projects across Northern Ireland are benefitting from a share of £2 million.