

Notification of imports of live shellfish from within the EU (England & Wales)

You need to give notification to the Fish Health Inspectorate to import live shellfish from within the European Union