

Nottinghamshire business supports production of masks for public

A Department for International Trade 'Export Champion' have refocused their efforts to supply face coverings to the UK public, in response to the outbreak.