

Offices at Legal Aid Department headquarters to resume service tomorrow morning

â€‹The Legal Aid Department today (February 7) announced that thorough cleaning and disinfection of its office premises have been completed after learning about a staff member being preliminarily tested positive for coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19). The Application and Processing Section on 24/F, the Information and Application Services Unit on 25/F, and the Civil Litigation (1) Section on 26/F of the Queensway Government Offices will resume service at 9.30am tomorrow (February 8).