

Official Statistics: National child measurement programme (NCMP): trends in child BMI

A report that provides a review of the changes in children's body mass index (BMI) over specific time intervals.