

Ofsted inspections to be done remotely until half term

All planned inspection activity will be carried out remotely until after the February half term.