

OISC investigation shuts down unregistered firm

An OISC investigation has led to an unregistered advice firm being shut down and the disbarring of a barrister that supervised it.