

“On Sounds, Colours, Images and Forms” multimedia lecture-performance series to be held in November

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department's "Beyond Multi-arts" Series will present the "On Sounds, Colours, Images and Forms" multimedia lecture-performance series in November.

The series is hosted by scenographer and singing bowl artist Tsang Mantung. In each of the lectures, there will be an interactive performance running for 21 minutes, and each of the four speakers will use their respective multi-media medium plus singing bowl performance to explore artistic expressions relating to sounds, colours, images and forms. The host and the speakers will also discuss how elements of physical movements, sounds, images, light and shadow can merge to form a new spatial realm on the performance stage.
