

One-off payments of up to £3,000 for over 27,000 health workers

Those in frontline roles such as community nurses and physiotherapists will benefit, with organisations receiving funding for the payments in the coming months.