

Open consultation: Local factors in managing flood and coastal erosion risk and property flood resilience: call for evidence

Seeking evidence on how local factors can be taken into account in the government's flood and coastal defence investment programme and how we can increase the uptake of property flood resilience.