

Consultation outcome: The future for food, farming and the environment

Updated: Summary of responses added.

Leaving the European Union and the Common Agricultural Policy will give us the chance for reform. We want to know your thoughts on the future of agricultural policy in England.