

Open consultation: The UK fresh produce sector: review of the supply chain

Seeking views on how the UK fresh produce industry currently functions and how to make changes to support farmers and improve food security.