

Operator and managers of unlicensed guesthouses fined

Three women were fined from $4,000 to $10,000 at Kowloon City Magistrates' Courts and West Kowloon Magistrates' Courts today (February 27) for contravening the Hotel and Guesthouse Accommodation Ordinance.

The courts heard that in June 2017 and April and August last year, officers of the Office of the Licensing Authority (OLA), the Home Affairs Department, inspected three suspected unlicensed guesthouses on Ho Pui Street in Tsuen Wan, Fuk Wa Street in Sham Shui Po and Ferry Street in Jordan. During the inspections, the OLA officers posed as lodgers and successfully rented rooms in the guesthouses on a daily basis.

According to the OLA's records, these guesthouses did not possess licences under the Ordinance on the days of inspection. The women responsible for operating and managing the premises were charged with contravening section 5(1) of the Ordinance.

A department spokesman stressed that operating or managing an unlicensed guesthouse is a criminal offence and will lead to a criminal record. Upon conviction, the offender is liable to a maximum fine of $200,000 and two years' imprisonment.

The spokesman appealed to anyone with information about suspected unlicensed guesthouses to report it to the OLA through the hotline (Tel: 2881 7498), by email (hadlaeng@had.gov.hk), by fax (2504 5805) using the report form downloaded from the OLA website (www.hadla.gov.hk), or through the mobile application "Hong Kong Licensed Hotels and Guesthouses".
