Friends of Wighton event this Saturday!

From Sheena Wellington :

Saturday 27th April : Christine Kydd, singer and songwriter Wighton Heritage Centre – Central Library – starts 11am

Check any online folk music station or magazine these days and chances are that there will be someone running out of superlatives to describe Christine Kydd's latest CD "Shift & Change."

Christine is, of course, one of Scotland's leading, award-winning singers and recording artistes.

With eclectic tastes, she is best known for her treatment of traditional and contemporary songs and her solo set is as likely to include self-penned songs as the work of Marra, Springsteen, Hulett, Wellington, McVicar, Jacob, Tannahill and Reid.

Admission £5; coffee and newspapers available from 10.30am.

Friends of Balgay Spring meeting #dundeewestend

The next Friends of Balgay meeting will be at 2pm on Saturday 27th April at the Mills Observatory.

Keith Walker, local artist and archivist, will give a talk on "Old Balgay – 1600 to 1800" – and all are very welcome to attend.

Getting things done – Forest Park Road and Rosefield Street #dundeewestend

I have received a number of further complaints about the amount of litter regularly in both Forest Park Road (pictured below) and Rosefield Street :

I have therefore raised this with the environment manager for the area regarding the need for more regular street sweeping in both streets.
