

Over £1 billion awarded to roll out lightning-fast broadband in hard to reach towns and villages

UK Government has signed £1 billion in contracts to connect around 677,000 rural homes and businesses to lightning-fast full fibre