

Over 10 million people in the UK receive COVID-19 top-up vaccines

More than 10 million people have now received their COVID-19 booster or third jabs, ensuring vital protection over the winter months.