

Over 2 000 job vacancies on offer under New Graduates-New Opportunities Scheme

The Hong Kong Chinese Enterprises Association (HKCEA) has rolled out the New Graduates-New Opportunities Scheme to provide over 2 000 job vacancies lasting for at least six months for university graduates. The scheme is supported by the Labour Department and co-ordinated by the HKCEA.

Under the scheme, university graduates will receive a monthly salary of no less than $12,000. All Hong Kong residents holding bachelor degrees or above which were awarded by local institutions or institutions outside Hong Kong in 2019 or 2020 are eligible to apply.

More than 200 local member enterprises of the HKCEA have joined the scheme from different industries including banking, finance, import and export trades, information technology, communication and logistics. They offer a wide variety of job positions including trainee, assistant manager, analyst, engineer, programmer, surveyor and accountant.

For details of the participating enterprises and job vacancies, please visit the website of the HKCEA (job.hkcea.com).