The vacancies offered cover a wide variety of positions, including guest services manager, engineer, social media and marketing executive, IT support assistant, office administrator, cook, security officer, food production worker and shop assistant.

Around 86 per cent of the vacancies are full-time jobs and most of them offer monthly salaries ranging from $10,000 to $20,000. Around 95 per cent require a Secondary Six education level or below. Around 70 per cent are open to job seekers without relevant experience.

Job seekers need to pre-register as a user of the LD's Interactive Employment Service before submitting online job applications to the participating organisations during the job fair. All services are free of charge. More information can be found on the department's Interactive Employment Service website.
