

Over 3 million rapid coronavirus tests in schools and colleges

Significant milestone sees primary and secondary schools and colleges conduct over 3 million tests with staff and students since January