

Over 350 additional military personnel deployed in Scottish Covid response

A further 353 Armed Forces personnel will deploy to locations across Scotland as part of the continuing military support to the testing and vaccine delivery programmes.