

Over 5,000 Armed Forces deployed in support of the Covid response in the biggest homeland operation in peacetime

Over 5,000 Armed Forces personnel are currently deployed to support the response to the Coronavirus across the UK, working on 70 different tasks ranging from schools testing to the rollout of vaccines.