

Oxford talk Friday 17 May “We dont believe you” The assault on establishment views

On Friday 17 May at 2 pm I am giving a talk on the collapse of great parties and the rise of scepticism about establishment opinion at All Souls College, High Street Oxford.

All those interested in coming should email myles.larrington@parliament.uk so we can tell the Lodge at All Souls to let you in.

I am happy to take questions on anything from migration to climate change, from Brexit to the trade war.
