

People leaving Afghanistan

As usual I am working over the week-end for urgent matters. If any of my constituents has close contacts with another constituent who is also a UK passport holder or former employee of the UK government in Afghanistan and they are having trouble getting on to one of the rescue flights, please let me know as there is an MP hotline I can try to see if more assistance can be given.