

People with HIV can now donate eggs or sperm to start a family

Change in law will allow people with non-transmissible HIV to donate gametes to partners