

Permanent African representation on the UN Security Council is a matter of urgency: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Lord Collins of Highbury, Minister for Africa and the UN, at the UN Security Council meeting on enhancing Africa's effective representation in the UN Security Council.